Foreign Policy: Wage And Win Peace— GOP Plank Calls For Freeing Of Enslaved

Civil Rights Program Under Federal Government
Supervision Favored By Resolutions Committee

CHICAGO (AP)—A Republican foreign policy setting a just peace as its goal and offering hope of eventual freedom to enslaved peoples was outlined Wednesday night to the party's national convention.

This would be accomplished, the platform committee said, within the framework of the United Nations and collective security agreements under which all bore fair shares of burdens, while at the same time serving the "enlightened" self-interest of the United States.

Its foreign policy, the committee said, would "wage peace and win it."

Broad Domestic Plank
The committee, in a foreign policy plank to be submitted to the convention Thursday along with a broad platform on domestic issues, issued a stinging indictment of the Truman administration, accusing it of squandering U. S. power and prestige and opening the door to Communist aggression.

The issue at the November election, the plank said, is whether the American people wish to continue in office "the party that has presided over . . . a disastrous reversal of our fortunes and the loss of our hopes for a peaceful world."

Although the committee approved the entire platform, only the two planks dealing with foreign policy and civil rights were made public Wednesday night in advance of the presentation of the whole document to the convention.

The foreign policy plank was approved by both major candidates for the party's presidential nomination—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio—before being recommended to the convention by the committee.

Compromise View
It was designed as something of a compromise of the view of these two candidates.

The Resolutions Committee plank would pledge a policy of cooperating with friendly nations, with greater emphasis on the Far East which it said Stalin has long recognized as "the road to victory over the West."

On the hot issue of civil rights at home, the committee said it believed the federal government should take "supplementary" action within its "constitutional jurisdiction to oppose discrimination against race, religion or national origin."

Southern delegates had opposed a party pledge to push federal action on the racial problem.

The civil rights plank, as drafted by the committee, left the door open for possible compulsory action against employers discriminating against Negroes and other racial groups in the hiring and firing of workers.

Also will be submitted with the full platform for convention approval Thursday—made this promise:

'Collective Security'
"We shall encourage and aid the development of collective security forces there (in Western Europe), as elsewhere, so as to end the Soviet power to intimidate directly or by satellites and so that the

Papoose's Carrier Life Was Bit Rough

Indian babies were initiated young into the rigors of life if the papoose carriers, on display at the Nebraska State Historical Society Museum, are any indication.

Papoose carriers, the devices Indian mamas used to carry their infants on their backs, actually consisted of nothing but a straight board strapped to the mother's back. Baby's head was protected by a curved strip of wood over the top. A leather thong fastened to the center of the board prevented the child from slipping.

Around the board and the baby went a leather cover which was decorated with beads and porcupine quills, giving the mother an opportunity to give vent to her artistic abilities.

By the time the papoose was strapped to the board and inside the leather cover, only his face was exposed to the elements.

Museum staff members estimate that the time required for the mother to decorate the cover was approximately three months.

Indian women must have searched far to find herbs, leaves, and bark with the right properties to give the mother the quills. The papoose carrier covers the newborn with quills of red, green, yellow, dark blue, light blue, pink, purple, white, and brown. Bright red calico and glass beads, completed the decoration scheme.

The carrier was so constructed that it could be leaned against the tree or wigwam or slung from the saddle horn without bruising the papoose.

Papoose carrier was the name runners of the modern baby car—them ivokopa; the Kiowas, piak-he. The Dakota Sioux called top; and the Cherokees, baku.

INDIAN BABY BUGGY—Dorothy Anderson, secretary to State Historical Society Museum Director Marvin Kivett, looks dubiously upon a Dakota Sioux papoose carrier decorated with porcupine quills, red calico, and beads. The Indian baby was strapped on a board on his mother's back and covered with the leather section Miss Anderson is holding.

School Boards Group Renames Two Officers

Dr. Frank H. Gorman, executive secretary of the Nebraska State School Boards Association, and Mrs. Florence Mueller, treasurer, were reappointed for the 1952-53 year during an executive committee meeting at the Cornhusker.

Lincoln was selected as host city for the Association's annual meeting next year, date of which will be "on or about" Jan. 12 and 13, according to Gorman.

Committee members decided to promote a "uniform accounting system" throughout Nebraska's school districts, asking cooperation from all school boards.

Luncheon speaker at the all-day meeting was Leo P. Black, State Department of Public Instruction, who discussed the proposed constitutional amendment which would create a State Board of Education.

The association is on record favoring the amendment.

Assistant Secretary Of Navy To Inspect Lincoln Air Station

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Air, John F. Floberg, will visit the Lincoln Naval Air Station Thursday evening and inspect the Air Base Friday morning.

According to Navy officials here, Floberg is not going to hold conferences concerning disposition of the Naval Station with the reactivation of the Base.

He will just stop over, they said, on a trip west.

Floberg will be accompanied by a Naval captain and a Marine aide.

Press Passes Fail; Convention Doors Open To Credit Card

CHICAGO (INS)—Radio-Newsman Al Morgan of CBS showed every correspondent's pass he had and still was refused admission to the GOP convention.

Finally, he reported Wednesday, he gave the guards a very quick look at a gas company credit card—and got right in.

City Hall Space Problem Moves Out Into Halls

The cramped quarters case at City Hall is nearing the ridiculous stage. Corridor space is now being converted into office quarters.

As the years of talk over plans for a new City Hall have rolled on and on, space at the antiquated 10th and O structure has become scarcer and scarcer. Boxes have been piled in corners for use as file cabinets, records are jammed to the ceilings and offices have been divided time and again to make room for growth in city government.

For the first time, however, work is now under way to convert about half of the fourth floor corridor into office space for the city engineering department.

Facilities will be provided there for the city sidewalk inspector and one office girl.

This is just another indication that the city is completely outgrown this building, commented City Engineer D. L. Erickson.

Erickson's department has previously been handicapped by having to find space for the city's resident city planning engineer. The Harland Bartholomew & Associates representative is currently quartered in Erickson's library and conference room.

6 Feared Dead In A Mine Blast

GLACE BAY, N. S. (Thursday) (AP)—One body was recovered early today and five other coal miners were believed dead following an explosion deep in a colliery in this Cape Breton coal mining town.

Rescue workers dug and blasted for almost two hours to reach a seventh miner trapped by the fall of coal and rock. He was brought to the surface in a serious condition from third-degree burns and rushed to a hospital.

Though rescuers continued to dig for the missing five, officials said they believed all were dead. Eighteen other men in the area of the explosion escaped. One report said they were unhurt.

Lincoln Firm Sued By OPS For $10,888

A suit asking more than $10,000 from the Northwestern Metal Company, Inc., 900 T, has been filed by the Office of Price Stabilization in Federal Court.

The suit, filed by Edward T. Hayes, special assistant to the U. S. district attorney, asked treble damages for alleged overpricing charges by the company for 49,865 pounds of scrap copper, sold to the Max Schlossberg Company of Chicago.

Treble damages, the usual penalty for violation of OPS ceiling price regulation, would amount to $10,888.47, since the alleged overcharge was $3,629.49.

Both temporary and permanent injunctions, enjoining the company from any future over-ceiling sales were also requested.

GEORGIA VOTE ASSURES IKE CHOICE—LODGE

CHICAGO (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower's campaign manager claimed Wednesday night that the 607 to 531 vote which the general's forces polled on seating the Georgia delegation assures the general's nomination on an early ballot.

The Republican national convention voted by that margin to deny permanent seating to Sen. Taft of Ohio, Eisenhower's major rival for the GOP presidential nomination.

Eisenhower's campaign manager, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of Massachusetts, promptly issued a statement in which he declared:

"The vote on the Georgia case is a decisive demonstration that this convention is determined to decide the issue on the basis of fair play whenever that issue is presented to it."

"It is an unmistakable indication that Eisenhower will be nominated on an early ballot."

Aids said Eisenhower himself slept through the test vote.

Ike Goes To Bed

CHICAGO (INS)—Gen. Eisenhower made no comment Wednesday on his Republican convention victory in the floor showdown on the Georgia delegate dispute.

The reason: The general was fast asleep in his hotel five miles from the wild convention scene.

An aide reported that Ike had retired some two hours before the Georgia delegate dispute was placed before the convention.

GEOP Bitterness Is Leaving 'Bad Smell'

By J. E. LAWRENCE (Editor, The Lincoln Star)

CHICAGO, Ill.—The Nebraska delegation split seven to 11 late Wednesday in the crucial vote over which Georgia delegation should be seated at the Republican national convention.

Voting in favor of the Eisenhower delegation were Arthur Weaver of Lincoln, Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, Charles Reed of Omaha, Herbert Hughes of Imperial, Fred Marsh of McCook, R. C. Johnson of Mead, and Robert G. Simmons Jr., of Scottsbluff.

There is every appearance that Ike will get the nomination on an early ballot, although a healthy slice of the votes aiding the Eisenhower victory on Georgia came from the California delegation, and there is no indication that the California votes will swing from Governor Warren to Eisenhower on an early ballot.

On the basis of a full day of snarling in the credentials committee, the Republican party had a "do-nothing" convention for the daylight session Wednesday to file on top of a "do-nothing" Eightieth Congress.

This long drawn out struggle

Battle Lines Of Sen. Taft Badly Battered

Jeers, Cheers And Fist Fight Mark Important Showdown On Floor; Eisenhower Forces Jubilant

Lone Star State By Acclamation

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO (Thursday) (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's rampaging forces smashed the wavering lines of Sen. Robert A. Taft in the Republican convention early today, giving Eisenhower 17 contested delegates from Georgia and 33 from Texas.

Whipped 607 to 531 on the seating of their all-Taft Georgia delegation, Taft forces caved in on Texas and let the Eisenhower camp have most of the Lone Star delegation by acclamation. The winning Texas group has 33 votes for Eisenhower, 5 for Taft.

As a result, Eisenhower shot ahead of Taft for the first time on the Associated Press score card. The probable first ballot standings in the presidential derby:

Eisenhower . . . 501
Taft . . . 485
Others . . . 111
Uncommitted . . . 109
Needed to nominate . . . 604

Once last night and again in the morning's early hours the Eisenhower legions jubilantly ground out victories that could determine in advance the winner of the GOP nomination.

The real job to Taft was the vote to seat 17 pro-Eisenhower delegates from Georgia and throw out a pro-Taft convention slate.

Harmony Motion
After that the acclamation vote to seat the heavily pro-Eisenhower group from Texas came almost as an anti-climax. Realizing who had the whip hand, Taftites in the Iowa delegation made a harmony motion to let the pro-Eisenhower Texas slate take seats without a roll call. Tired delegates whooped the motion through.

On the basis of the Georgia decision alone, Eisenhower backers raised a claim to an early ballot nomination for their man when the nominee picks gets under way, possibly tonight.

Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania announced for Ike and predicted a second ballot win.

But after giving up on Texas, Taft managers said the senator still was going to capture the nomination, with the help of "grass roots" supporters.

FIST-SLINGING TUSSELE
For a time, the Texas showdown had been billed as the big floor fight of the convention. But it was definitely tame compared with a fist-slinging, cheering-booming battle over Georgia.

Spectator galleries, up in the haze of cigarette smoke, were half empty when the decision came on the Texas scrap that centered around:

Eisenhower charges that Taft forces attempted to "steal" the Lone Star State delegation.

Taft counter-charges that Eisenhower people in Texas loaded their delegate-picking meetings with Johnny-come-lately Democrats.

The arguments, with plenty of harshly worded embellishments, rang out all over again Wednesday in this stockyards amphitheater.

The Texas decision definitely settled the great battle of disputed delegates that had rocked the GOP before the convention began and ever since it got under way.

When the verdict came Eisenhower fans sent up a "We Want Ike" chant and broke into "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You."

After the decision on Georgia's 17-man delegation, Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania's hefty delegation announced at last that he will "cast my ballot for Eisenhower" for the nomination. He forecast in a television interview that it will be Eisenhower on the second ballot. A Pennsylvania caucus showed 51 votes for the general, 16 for Taft, three for Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Eisenhower himself had climbed into bed before the fight was over. But his campaign manager, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of Massachusetts, said the Georgia decision was "an unmistakable indication that Eisenhower will be nominated on an early ballot."

Taft forces challenged that. Taft Floor Manager Thomas E. Coleman said he believes "grass roots" states will throw the nomination to the senator. Only Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's control of the New York delegation, he said, stopped a Taft victory tonight.

Taft had no comment for the present.

It was a strange jury of frantic partisans that sat in judgment in the massive struggle. Boos and cheers from the delegates rolled through this vast amphitheater at the edge of the Chicago Stockyards.

There was at least one fist fight on the floor. That was after Sen. Everett Dirksen, pro-Taft spell-binder from Illinois, pointed a finger at Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and implored that Eisenhower, leader to "re-examine your heart."

Roar of Boos
"We followed you before and you took us down the road to defeat," Dirksen roared.

Boos flooded out from every corner of the auditorium.

Walter S. Hallanan, the convention's presiding officer, slammed down his gavel.

"This," he said grimly, "is no place for Republicans to be booing other Republicans."

The Pennsylvania and Michigan delegations, still publicly in fence at the point of the crucial vote on 17 Georgia delegates, tried for a nose-counting recess. The convention refused to grant it.

Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania jumped onto the speaker's platform.

"By God," he thundered, "there was an agreement for a 45-minute recess. Let's line up to our agreement."

His chin trembling, Hallanan ruled that the agreement hinged on the will of the convention. And, he shouted, the recess motion had been yelled down.

Then came the roll call on Georgia.

Georgia, Texas and 13 Louisiana delegates couldn't vote, for the contests affecting them still were unsettled. It took 570 votes to put across the fateful decision.

When the 607 to 531 vote in favor of the pro-Eisenhower delegation was announced, another noisy demonstration broke out.

The 17 votes at stake in the Georgia contest was a tiny portion of the convention's total of 1,266 seats, but the decision was a tip-off on who had the whip hand.

Right at the outset, California showed which way it was leaning if Gov. Earl Warren pulls out of the presidential sweepstakes. It laid 62 votes on the line for Eisenhower, eight for Taft.

Another key delegation, Michigan, threw 32 votes to the general, 14 to the Ohio Senator.

N.Y. Gives Ike 92

New York gave Eisenhower's cause 92 votes to 4 for Taft. Pennsylvania split 52-18 for Eisenhower.

It was Virginia that hit the jackpot number—570—for Eisenhower. That made the political neophyte look more and more like a presidential candidate when the convention gets around to the nominee picking business sometime Thursday.

Harvest Nears Completion In Southern Area

(By the Associated Press)

The wheat harvest was about complete in Red Willow County Wednesday and in Keith County it was going forward rapidly with an early windup in prospect.

Reports from Red Willow County, as the last of the wheat was being gathered from the fields, indicated yields ranging from 15 to 40 bushels, test weights from 48 to 63 pounds, but moisture generally, low ranging from 9 to 15 per cent.

The harvest was reported Wednesday to be about 95 per cent complete near Red Cloud in Webster County. Reports there indicated the best yields were around 40 bushels per acre, with an average of 20 bushels for the county as a whole.

The Farmers Elevator at Fairbury announced that at least 95 per cent of the wheat in the surrounding territory had been harvested Wednesday. Some farmers in Jefferson County are beginning to cut early oats.

One Ogallala elevator said most of the Keith County wheat coming in was No. 1 quality, with some of it No. 2. Top grade grain tested 60 pounds or better and the No. 2 about 58 pounds. Moisture content was near the 11 per cent mark, which is excellent.

Yields generally averaged 30 bushels to the acre.

$2,500 Fire Loss

Keith County had some bad luck when a hot manifold on a truck kindled a fire in a 140 acre field. About 40 acres were burned off with a resulting loss estimated at $2,500 before 100 to 150 firemen and volunteers from Ogallala, Brule, Keith and Perkins Counties brought the blaze under control.

The fire was at the Don D. Dedmore farm near Brule. Between 80 and 90 acres of the field had been cut before the fire started. Mrs. Dedmore said the field was making about 30 bushels to the acre.

MGM Executives Take Salary Cuts

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hollywood's biggest studio—MGM—announced Wednesday its top executives have agreed to accept salary cuts of from 25 to 50 per cent "to provide leadership in a drive for economy."

The cuts will be effective for one year and will apply also to executives in New York and around the world of Loew's, Inc., MGM's parent organization. About 100 executives are involved, the studio said.

Executives of 20th Century-Fox agreed to similar salary reductions a year ago, but the cuts apply to executives earning more than $1,000 weekly and no part of the salary given up will be returned.

The studio said it is reducing the number of producers, directors and writers on permanent contract and is cracking down on such waste factors as tardiness, temperamental, and lack of preparation in the production of films.

The cuts will not affect the salaries of actors, producers or directors, the studio said.

Columbus Phone Rate Hike Hearing Recessed

The State Railway Commission recessed the hearing on the application of the Nebraska Continental Telephone Co., Columbus, for a rate increase to give possible objectors an opportunity to study evidence submitted by the company.

Date of resumption of the hearing will be announced later.

EISENHOWER VICTORY BRINGS TEARS OF JOY—Mrs. Edward Pettibon (left) is overjoyed by the victory of her husband (center) as Mrs. Doris Bourdeaux (right) weeps with tears of happiness Wednesday after the Republican credentials committee awarded contested convention seats to Pettibon and 12 other Eisenhower supporters from Louisiana. THE SENATOR IS CONFIDENT AS HE MEETS THE PRESS—it was a confident looking Sen. Robert A. Taft (right) as he talked to newsmen in a hallway at the Conrad Hilton Hotel late Wednesday afternoon. The senator's forces had just won a victory before the Republican convention credentials committee in seating of the Texas delegation. The committee voted to seat 22 delegates favorable to Sen. Taft; 16 favorable to Gen. Eisenhower. (AP Wirephoto Wednesday Night.)

Delegate Collapses On Convention Floor

CHICAGO (AP)—William G. Cloon, 47, of Ironwood, Mich., an alternate delegate to the Republican national convention, collapsed Wednesday night on the floor of the convention hall.

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the Chicago Board of Health, examined Cloon and said he was suffering from nervous exhaustion. He was given a sedative.

Warren Is Determined To Stay In The Fight

CHICAGO (INS)—Sen. William Knowland of California said Wednesday night that Gov. Earl Warren has not given a thought to withdrawing from the Republican presidential race.

Knowland, insisting that the governor will remain in the thick of the fight for a "number of ballots," added that Warren's chances of becoming a GOP "harmony" candidate have increased because of the "acrimony" between Taft and Eisenhower forces.

Alcoa Agrees To 'Escalator' Pay Contract

PITTSBURGH (INS)—The Aluminum Co. of America and the AFL International Council of Aluminum Workers Wednesday announced agreement on a unique five-year "escalator" contract covering 9,500 Alcoa workers in six plants.

The cost of living "escalator" clause used in the agreement has never been used in the aluminum industry, a joint union-company statement said.

The contract provides a 10 per cent wage increase retroactive to mid-March, improved vacations and shift differentials and hospitalization and insurance benefits.

The agreement also provides for an annual pay increase of 4 cents an hour for the duration of the contract plus a quarterly wage adjustment based on the cost of living index.

Alcoa plants covered by the agreement are located in Cressona, Pa.; Chillicothe, O.; Davenport, Ia.; Lafayette, Ind.; East St. Louis, Ill.; and Massena, N. Y.

Ike Courting Californians

CHICAGO (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower courted California's 70-vote delegation Wednesday—and promised to install "a clean new group" of officials in Washington if he is elected President.

Pushing his drive for the Republican nomination, the general went before the strategic California group and declared a party in power as long as the Democrats "must be put out."

Cries of "attaboy" greeted his appeal for party harmony.

Eisenhower, in a hot race with Sen. Taft of Ohio for the nomination, was bidding for support from the big bloc of California delegates now pledged to Gov. Earl Warren.

Tuesday, the delegation to the party's national convention looked over Taft, who also is hoping to pick up voting strength from the west coast group if Warren's dark horse possibilities disappear.

Before motoring to the Warren quarters—at the invitation of Warren himself—Eisenhower visited at his own hotel with the 16-vote Oklahoma delegation.

Thone Switches Support To Taft

CHICAGO (AP)—Senator Taft picked up another vote Wednesday in Nebraska's delegation to the Republican convention.

Charles Thone of Lincoln who had planned to cast his first ballot vote for Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer told a reporter he now plans to vote for Taft for the presidential nomination.

Thone's decision is expected to give Taft 14 first ballot votes from Nebraska with the state's four others likely to go to General Eisenhower, although two of them still are not formally committed.

Weary Mrs. Taft Plans Long Rest

CHICAGO (INS)—A weary—and possibly bitter—Martha Taft was planning an extended Canadian vacation Wednesday night regardless of the outcome of the Republican national convention.

Mrs. Taft, whose strength has failed perceptibly since her arrival in Chicago a few days ago, is completely worn out by the strain of the third presidential campaign in which her husband has been a candidate.

As the news became more discouraging to Taft supporters Wednesday, Mrs. Taft for the first time ordered her telephone cut off and secluded herself in her Congress Hotel suite to watch convention proceedings by television.

The once vigorous, forthright wife of "Mr. Republican" suffered a stroke two years ago and still is confined to a wheelchair.

She has attended every Republican convention but one since 1912 but her physical disability has prevented her from being present at a single convention session this year.

Married for 37-years to the Ohio senator, she has had for some time the passionate conviction that her husband would be the best possible choice for President of the United States.

Reserves Now In Two Classes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman Wednesday signed a bill setting up two classes of reservists and limiting his authority to call them into active military service.

The measure, passed by Congress last week, divides reservists into "ready" and "standby" groups.

The "ready" reserves can be called up by the President during an emergency but Congress decides how many shall be called. This group is limited to a total of 1½ million members.

Veterans with long service and more active participation in the reserves will go into the "standby" group. These men could be put into active service only in wartime or during an emergency declared by Congress and only when the number of "ready" reservists is exhausted.

Small, Bitter Infantry Tilts Feature War

SEOUL (Thursday) (AP)—United Nations infantrymen fought bitter, small-scale actions with Communist forces at points all across the 155-mile Korean battlefield Wednesday and early Thursday inflicting at least 336 casualties on the Reds.

Allied losses were not disclosed, but were called proportionately small by Eight Army officers.

A large Allied raiding party probed northwest of Chonwon on the Western Front and occupied three hills without trouble. On a fourth hill the Allies ran into opposition and called up tanks for support. The raiders withdrew at dusk to Allied lines.

Attack Hill

On the eastern end of the battlefield, UN troops, attacking a Communist held ridge in a pincers movement, killed 42 Reds and wounded 55 more in an all-day encounter. The Allies withdrew at dusk.

In the air war B-29 superforts Wednesday night bombed the Huichon Marshalling Rail Yard on the main Chinese Red supply route from Manchuria. Communist night fighters made an unsuccessful attack on one superfort, the Far East Air Forces reported.

In Washington the Defense Department reported US battle casualties increased 552 since last week, for a total of 112,128 since the war began.

Father Of Quads Sent To Hospital For 'Rest'

PORTLAND, Me. (AP)—The Pinkham quadruplets' 45-year-old father was admitted Wednesday to the same hospital where his 35-year-old wife and their two quads are doing nicely. Hospital officials said Silas Pinkham was suffering "nervous exhaustion" from the excitement of the last three days. Pinkham was ordered to rest in his bed two or three days when he arrived at Osteopathic Hospital to visit his wife and quads.

Roaring $6,000,000 Blaze Rips Through Warner Studio Lots

20 Injured In Second Big Fire

BURBANK, Calif. (INS)—A roaring inferno of flames, the second to strike in less than two months, ripped through the back lot of Warner Brothers Studio Wednesday causing damage estimated at six million dollars.

The fire was brought under-control but still blazing three hours after wind-driven flames blasted out of the studio's huge ship dock.

Rangers from Los Angeles County battled a second blaze in the mountains across the Los Angeles River from the studio. The fire in the hills was caused by blazing embers carried over from the back lot blaze.

Twenty persons, all studio employees, were injured, none of them seriously. Two of the victims suffered heart attacks, but were treated at the studio dispensary and sent home.

The fire was described by studio officials as a "four to five times" more destructive than the blaze last May 16 that caused one and one-half million dollars damage.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Hundreds of firemen, aided by actors in grease paint and studio employees, pitched in to help fight the blaze immediately after the fire, preceded by a jolting blast, broke out in the studio's permanent New York tenement set.

Actors Steve Cochran and Gordon MacRae rushed in flowing Arab robes from the set of "The Desert Song" to aid.

They were old hands at the business as they had taken part in the May 16 conflagration. Broderick Crawford also pitched in with a bucket brigade.

Actress Kathryn Grayson and other feminine players cheered their efforts from the sidelines.

AMONG THE GENERAL'S VISITORS—Among Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's visitors Wednesday was this tearful little miss, 10-month-old Yvonne Luttrell of Tampa, Fla. The Republican presidential nominee aspirant seems to be having a hard time trying to get the youngster to smile. Even the large balloon is no help. (AP Wire-photo, Wednesday Night.)

U.S. May Buy War Planes In West Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department said Wednesday it has agreed tentatively to buy up to 225 million dollars worth of airplanes in Europe.

The approval is contingent upon agreement by Western European members of the Atlantic Treaty Organization to buy another 175 million dollars worth.

U.S.-purchased planes also would go to strengthen the Western European air defenses.

Seek Argentine Bombers

BUENOS AIRES (INS)—A small bomb exploded in front of the U. S. Information Service Office at the American embassy in Buenos Aires Wednesday and slightly injured several pedestrians.

The bomb, planted by unidentified persons described by Argentine police as "nationalistic," also blew out big glass shop windows in the area.

Reds Block Indictment

Use 51st Veto To Kill
Condemnation Of Tactics

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—Russia cast its 51st veto in U.N. history Wednesday to prevent the Security Council from officially condemning "the practice of fabricating and disseminating Communist warfare propaganda."

American Representative Ernest A. Gross immediately indicated that the U.S. will call on the General Assembly next October for the indictment of Russia as a "hate and war monger" if the Soviet Union persists in the discredited germ warfare propaganda.

Gross took Soviet Delegate Jacob Malik to task, after the Russian voted in the negative on the U.S. condemnation resolution, thus defeating the supporting votes of nine of the 10 other council members. Pakistan abstained.

Malik insisted that representatives of Red China and North Korea must first be invited to participate in any germ warfare discussions.

Last Thursday, he used the 50th Russian veto to block a Red Cross on-the-spot investigation.

Since Puritans objected to May poles and other May Day celebrations, they were forbidden by the British parliament in 1644.

HST 'Worried' Taft Won't Win Republican Nod

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman voiced mock fear Wednesday that his "favorite candidate," Sen. Taft of Ohio might be defeated for the Republican presidential nomination.

The President tore himself away from his television set at the White House, where he had been watching proceedings of the Republican national convention, to make a hurried trip to the Washington airport. There he met Secretary of State Acheson upon his return from an European tour and another trip to Brazil.

Talking with the State Department officials as he awaited Acheson's arrival, he grinningly told them:

"I'm worried. It looks like my favorite candidate is going to get beat."

Truman has said repeatedly that Taft is his choice for the Republican nomination.

Frances Gere Condition Is Becoming Poorer

Frances Gere, a Lincoln woman injured recently in a car-truck accident in California, was reported Wednesday as "not doing so well."

According to her doctor, she has developed a congestion in her chest which was previously undetected. She is still semi-conscious.

Her sister, Marel, was reported as "coming along fine."

Germans Seek Deserter Returning To Russia

DONN, Germany (AP)—British authorities said Wednesday night they have asked German police to hunt for and arrest a Russian deserter who is trying to make his way back to East Germany from asylum in England.

German police said the British had asked them to nab the man because "He should be prevented from getting back to East Germany or to Russia with the knowledge he gained in England."

The Germans said they were not told what sort of knowledge the Russian might possess.

German police said the hunted man is a former Red Army corporal.

Paging A Great Healer

By J. E. LAWRENCE

CHICAGO — Above the noise of the blaring bands and the cheering crowds—the boss and the sharp, machine-gun rounds of applause—one basic fact stood out crystal clear here. The man who becomes the choice of the Republican party as its nominee for the presidency faces a great task of healing. The things that are being said and done here go deep—exposing as they do scarlet wounds upon the minds of men.

Every convention produces its intense individual rivalries, representing as they do the personal ambitions of individuals. This is slightly different. There is the clash between two men—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower and Sen. Bob Taft, to be sure—but back of the two are factions of a party as far apart as the poles—factions which see things as differently as two groups possibly could and they are eager and ready to be in each other's hair. For one it could be the end of the road if defeat is his lot. To understand the position of the Taft wing it is necessary to march back over the last 12 years through three Republican National Conventions in which the Taftites played a sorry minority role. Another such defeat leaves that wing with the feeling that it is without a home. The words are not those of the editor. He has talked with many Taft men since arriving here and they have expressed themselves in this language. It is now or never with them—a "do or die" position in which they find themselves—a political must for continued self-respect.

Outwardly they have undertaken to create the illusion of being willing to conciliate differences. Actually they have been tough. They have had tight control of the party machinery. They have been in full command of the Republican National Committee—their only opposition coming from the women, who have stood closely together for the most part. They not only took over individual key posts in the convention but they maintained a strangle hold in the preliminary organization of the committees, including the vital credentials group which had launched its hearings when this was written and whose labors may have been set forth in type before this appears.

It would be a mistake to convey the impression that the practical men back of Gen. Eisenhower have utilized only lofty, noble expressions of ideals in the attempt to put their man over. They have spent far too much money—legitimately, of course, in the hiring of workers, the distribution of literature, the lavish purchase of full page ads, the showers of telegrams, and the distribution of emblems. To all outward appearances it would seem figuratively that both sides have a special pipeline to the gold hidden far beneath the surface at Ft. Knox.

Perhaps the situation can best be told by suggesting that what has been taking place here no longer bears the cloak of a nominating convention. There is the impression that the battle involves the election of a President without going through the formalities of a popular vote in November. It will take a great healer—a master healer—who, following the conclusion of this struggle, will find it necessary to devote a world of time and energy to curing the painful wounds which have been inflicted. It will call for a winsome smile, a capacity to give and take, an overpowering sense of humility and finally the creation of the conviction within the ranks of the party of a great crusade in a sacred cause. Eisenhower may have the tools for it. We doubt that Taft possesses them but there is no question any longer that a new Taft has emerged from the struggles of recent weeks—a more gracious man with a warm smile and an understanding which he did not previously possess.

The real explanation of the mounting bitterness in the two wings is that there is a sheer, stark honesty in this intra-party strife. The conservatives back of Taft have a deep contempt for the "me-tooers" who have led the party in three futile presidential campaigns. But the Eisenhower people actually imparted a great deal of spiritual fervor to their fight against Taft-packed southern delegations. They spoke with obvious feeling and high purpose to break through the crust of the party organization and to bring it closer to the people. They themselves may have been guilty of rigging but they pulled a coat of virtue around their shoulders.

One other observation seems justified. In the great revolt which has been in progress here the governors have taken over. The congressional influence which has been supreme in the events leading up to the convention has been put back in its basket. That was one of the undercurrents which gave Gov. Dewey so much trouble four years ago.

We met up with a friend of long standing outside the convention hall late yesterday—one of the capable men who handles a daily column out of the national capital. He expressed the opinion that the bitterness created in this fight had already cost the Republicans any chance of November success. We would not go that far. But we will remember this convention as one in which the skies were angry, the lightning flashed and the thunder rolled. It will be a miracle if tempers continue to be held in check sufficiently to avoid an open break or fistfights on a broad scale—an even greater miracle if within the party all can be forgotten and forgiven.

When Ignorance Is Wisdom

We have had it in mind for several days, and more especially since landing in Chicago, to write of a strange development that greets the reader of the editorial pages of a great many American newspapers. The old saw goes: "Ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." It has been re-written.

In their admiration for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, an understandable admiration, the newspapers seem determined to outdo themselves. They make ignorance a great American virtue. When at his press conferences in a burst of "candor" Gen. Eisenhower admits his inability or his lack of qualifications to answer questions, they report with something that belies cynicism that the general is "refreshing." He does not know and he is honest enough or sufficiently forthright to admit that he is stumped.

One classic example crept out recently. At a press conference the general was asked to express himself upon the reciprocal trading agreement program. He, by way of answer, told the newspapermen he was not sufficiently informed to discuss it. That started an avalanche of adjectives. Here was an honest man, even if apparently a resident of another world for several years. Gen. Eisenhower might have expressed the opinion that brushing aside details of individual trading agreements, the whole general idea of encouraging trade between nations through leveling tariff barriers fitted well into his ideas of international responsibility. But in his answer a surprisingly large section of the American press, somewhat starry-eyed, was

The Average Cow

Agricultural research of any kind is generally interesting, but a man from a national cheese company has come up with a few unusual facts about cows which can be added to the department of unimportant-but-interesting information.

An average cow walks four and a half miles a day while grazing and drinks 10 times a day. She takes 50 to 80 bites of grass a minute, and chews an average of 500 cuds a day.

The man who worked out these statistics is Will A. Foster, vice president of a well-known dairy company, who has learned about bovine habits during more than a quarter of a century of study. He was reared on a farm where he milked 12 cows twice a day while attending high school.

He also discovered that the cow may be the originator of the modern labor movement. She grazes eight hours, chews her cud for eight hours, rests eight hours. She works split shifts of four hours between milkings.

And the researcher found that a cow won't walk over a hill if she possibly can walk around it.

"If surveyors follow cow paths through hills," he says, "they'll always know the lowest point of elevation."

Words Of One Syllable

Back in 1932 Al Smith was accused of organizing a movement to halt the nomination of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Will Rogers reported that Smith, when asked about this, replied: "I am not only trying to stop Roosevelt. I am like the rest of 'em—trying to stop everybody but myself."

Might be a good idea to remember this in the coming hours.

overwhelmed with an admission that in examination should have flunked a junior in high school.

We happened to be in this same convention city in 1932 and the memories of those experiences in that critical year are still vivid. Only yesterday we rode by a park where a portion of an army of jobless men, dirty, poorly clad and more impressively, seemingly without hope, were being fed at a soup line. We had left the dreary stream of oratory which filled the convention hall in order to get a look at these men. They were the victims of the crash of the twenties.

It is amazing how quickly the press of this country has overlooked one expression from Gen. Eisenhower. If correctly quoted—and we have seen no denial of the original statement—he expressed the opinion it would be possible to reduce federal appropriations by $40 billion within two years. That statement lived for a day, a very short day in the headlines, disappeared from sight, never to reappear again either in the news columns or on the editorial pages of most of the newspapers of this country. They knew, as all other people who had read it knew, that to deflate this country to the tune of 40 billions in 24 months was to sow grass seed in the streets of the cities, create a vast unemployment.

Gen. Eisenhower is a great American. He has served his country magnificently. There are those who in intense admiration for him might well wish that he had never listened to the elusive siren call dinned in his ears by politicians hoping that he would pull them back into power while they clutched firmly to his coattails. These conventions can be brutal things, much of it unconscious, and in the brief time that this 1952 convention has been in progress, we have seen some of it, some of it unplanned and much of it simply the product of the searing conflicts aroused by the American political system.

After a lifetime in the military service of his country, Gen. Eisenhower could not be expected to be acquainted with the complex details of national policies. He would have to lean rather heavily upon advisers in the event of nomination and election. In the meantime it is an amazing reflection that what in another man would appear to be stupidity has become the greatest of virtues in a popular idol.

Money, Entertainment Flow Freely In Chicago

CHICAGO—The politically naive

Mr. Eisenhower can't quite be sure whether his friend, Gov. Tom Dewey, is an asset or a liability. Probably a little of both. Dewey came with delegates, newsmen or has one of the smoothest working anyone else was met by Eisenhower political machines in the country and he personally helped two and win Pennsylvania delegates for Ike. His friend, Herbert Brownell, also did a skillful job of directing strategy. But Dewey has built up much ill will inside the party and this boomeranged somewhat against Ike. . . . Enmity against Dewey boiled inside his own New York delegation at its first caucus. When the governor tried to whip his delegates into line, "I'm going to be governor for another two and a half years," Dewey warned the men who must depend on him for favors. "If you think that Taft has a steamroller, wait until you see our steamroller operate." . . . Despite his whiplashing, some New Yorkers bolted to Taft.

—TAFTEFFICIENCY—
Seldom has there been such efficient organization for a political convention as that of Sen. Taft's. His Democratic colleague from Georgia, Sen. Dick Russell, has two delegates at Chicago. Bill Primm and John Connolly, who are greatly impressed. . . . Taft has five different cross-indexes of every delegate in Chicago. Here they are: Index No. 1 gives the name of every delegate and also the name of every one of the Taft "Big 4" who should contact them. The Taft "Big 4" are Ben Tate of Standard Brands, Tom Coleman of Wisconsin, Dave Ingalls, and Taft himself. This index also has a red tab on each card showing whether the delegate has been contacted within the past 24 hours. Shortly after he arrived in Chicago, Taft himself sat down and began phoning delegates allotted to him to make sure they weren't slipping to Ike. . . . Index No. 2 gives the names of the family doctors of delegates. This potent piece of political intelligence is reported to have come from the American Medical Association and permits Taft leaders to work on delegates through their family doctors. . . . Index No. 3 is the smallest of all and lists Eisenhower delegates who are wavering. Only 14 were in this file at the start of the convention. . . . Index No. 4 lists uncommitted delegates, while Index No. 5 gives the party case-history of every delegate. This is the most important of all. It tells when a delegate joined the Republican party, how he has voted, whether he likes the theater, good food or liquor, who his friends are, and even contains a map of his district. Thus functions the efficient Taft machine.

—CONVENTION MONEY—
There's more money, more entertainment flowing around this convention than any before. Both sides are taking delegates out to dinner and to the theater in droves. Almost anything they want is theirs. . . . Henry Ford II has his yacht anchored just off Michigan Blvd. where wavering delegates are entertained. Ford is for Ike, and has reached as far away from Michigan as Virginia to woo delegates for his candidate. . . . Ford also brought in 150 svelte Mercurys and Fords in cream and blue to put at delegates' disposal. . . . Young and

—BACKSTAGE STRATEGY—
One of the most effective moves backing up Eisenhower was the petition by 24 governors at Houston against the so-called "steal" of southern delegates. This was strictly "made in Denver," and the man who masterminded it was Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas, a former governor, who called the GOP governors in Houston, got them to sign the petition. . . . When the Taft people moved into their headquarters at the Hilton Hotel they found Bob Allen's assistant, Paul Scott, occupying a room right in the middle of their extensive layout. It meant that Scott could watch everything Taft delegate did—a wonderful spot for a newsman. Taft people asked Scott to move; he politely declined. What newsman wouldn't? (Editor's Note: That's former Lincoln Star Staffer Paul Scott, always a great newsman.) . . . Republican National Committee is so touchy on the subject of secrecy that it even refused to let TV camera focus on the outside of the committee-room door. TV producers wanted to show the locked door, but sensitive GOPers said no. . . . Sen. Gene Millikin of Colorado and ex-Speaker Joe Martin both called on Eisenhower early in the convention to try to heal GOP wounds. Millikin wanted to consult regarding the GOP foreign-affairs plank. Martin assured Ike that the question of seating southern delegates would be brought up before the entire convention on the first day, not wait until later—as some Taft people desired. . . . Eisenhower, who never attended a political convention before in his life, is learning fast.

Martin Promises Impartial Convention Decisions

Ex-Speaker Pours It On Democrats

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (P)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. assailed the Democrats and promised the Republican National Convention Wednesday night he would preside over it as an impartial umpire who knows the rules and calls them fairly.

The stocky congressman, former speaker of the House and now its minority leader, made this pledge as he took over the permanent chairmanship of a national GOP convocation for the fourth consecutive time.

His only desire, he said in a prepared speech, was "to make certain that every delegate has a fair chance of expression; to make certain that the will of the majority prevails; and, above all else, to make certain that we shall emerge from this convention a united, militant force."

Lambasts Democrats
Then Martin launched into an attack on the Democrats which mingled serious accusations with humorous barbs designed to heap ridicule on the party in power.

The themes were ones on which the convention already has heard much—inflation, the Korean War, corruption and mismanagement in the federal government, high taxes.

But Martin added a new note too. He asserted the Democrats in power "do not believe in the future of America" and "have succumbed to the Old World fatalism from which our forefathers fled."

"I am proud to say," he continued, "that during these years of tragic drifting, the Republican Party has never once faltered, has never once plunged into this whirlpool of oblivion. We have not fallen for the Old World doctrines of defeatism and statism."

Hold Order Placed On Elusive Man Wanted Locally

County Attorney Frederick H. Wagener said he has issued a request for Illinois authorities to hold Richard Wallace, 23, who eluded law enforcement officers on several occasions.

Wagener said he learned the man had been picked up in Illinois.

Wallace was wanted in connection with the May 9, 1951 theft of a diamond ring from the Lowell Jewelry Company. Wallace was scheduled for a jury trial Feb. 18, but failed to show up, forfeiting a $1,000 appearance bond.

After the theft last May, Wallace eluded officers who wanted to question him. He led officers on a chase through downtown Lincoln and was finally captured underneath a parked car.

He pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Broadway Bookies Not Offering Odds On Taft And Ike

NEW YORK (INS)—Most Broadway bookies refused to quote odds Wednesday on the outcome of the battle between Sen. Taft and Gen. Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination.

A canvass of some of New York's most active odds-makers and bet-takers brought to light only one big-time operator who was handling bets—and they weren't his own. He said, "I'm holding several thousand dollars for other people at even money; I haven't heard any odds quoted one way or the other."

Other betting experts scoffed at one report that Ike was a 7-5 battling favorite, insisting: "There just isn't any action on this one."

Churchill's Guest
LONDON (INS)—Margaret Truman had luncheon Wednesday with British Prime Minister Churchill. The daughter of the President arrived aboard the liner United States which broke the trans-Atlantic crossing record.

Hoover Puts His Support Behind Taft

CHICAGO (INS)—Former President Herbert Hoover said late Wednesday he favors the nomination of Sen. Taft as the Republican candidate for President.

The ex-President, in a statement issued by Taft headquarters, said:

"Senator Taft has long proved his forthrightness, integrity and absolute devotion to public interest, and he has had long experience in government."

Hoover pointed out that although he has not "taken public part in convention choice of candidate" for many years he was doing so at this time because "My conscience demands that I speak out."

Hoover said he has been "deeply distressed at the acrimonious discussion in the convention."

He asserted: "This convention meets not only to nominate a candidate but to save America."

He said he hopes the intra-party dissension "shall cease for the sake of the future of our party and the country."

He said he has known Sen. Taft since the two were associated in World War I and has had a favorable opinion of the Ohioan ever since.

Huskerville Will Be Sprayed To Battle Polio

If the weather is right Friday, an airplane will spray Huskerville with a DDT solution in an attempt to kill flies and mosquitoes.

Five cases of polio from Huskerville have been reported this year, Airport Manager L. H. "Buster" deBrown said. That is half the total cases in the county. One Huskerville case has been fatal.

"We don't know how much good it will do against polio," deBrown said, "But we're willing to try it if there's a chance it'll help." Cost is estimated at $150.

Of the 10 total cases in Lancaster County, two were reported in January, four in June and four more in July. The last eight came after June 28.

Morris Seigel, county chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said Lincoln has "sufficient" equipment to meet its polio needs now. He said there are six tank-type iron lungs and two portable respirators in town.

With 16 cases of polio reported in the state last week, the state health department pointed out that this week for the first time this year the total number of cases reported is greater than it was at this time last year.

There have been 44 cases reported as compared to 43 at this time last year.

New cases included six each in Douglas and Lancaster Counties, two in Burt and one each in Merriam and Keith Counties.

Victory In Bag, Confides Taft

CHICAGO (P)—Sen. Taft said Wednesday he had the 1952 Republican presidential nomination "almost in the bag" on the basis of a Credentials Committee decision giving him 22 Texas votes.

Taft saluted as equitable the ruling that split Texas' 38 votes, 22 for Taft and 16 for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"It's almost in the bag for me," Taft told newsmen. He added he was confident convention delegates would uphold the Credentials Committee against any appeal by Eisenhower's leaders.

"The action on the Texas question," said Taft, "was accomplished with equity along lines of the compromise I suggested. The Credentials Committee made a judicial decision."

Taft called on Eisenhower to abide by decision of the committee and not fight them on the convention floor.

"If one who has talked about fair play and justice cannot abide by a fair and impartial decision he had better give up all talk of fraud and everything else," Taft said in a hotel corridor news conference.

Local Teachers To Visit Business Houses In Lincoln

Plans calling for 800 public, private and parochial Lincoln school teachers to visit some 50 business firms here on Business-Education Day were supplemented Wednesday with plans for a "turn-about," in which Lincoln's businessmen will visit the schools.

The "reciprocal" arrangement was decided upon by the Chamber of Commerce board of directors, who met with Glenn Yaussi, Richard A. Jay and Supt. Steven Watkins, who reported on B-E Day plans.

When the Business-Education Day was first suggested to Lincoln's Board of Education, the group approved August 29 as the date and stipulated that businessmen should later in the year "return the compliment."

"We welcome the opportunity to show our educators the inside workings of business," said Chamber President Emmet Junge, "and we are just as anxious that businessmen know all the problems of the schools."

Plans for the Aug. 29 affair call for the visiting teachers to be divided into groups to study the workings of one firm. After they are conducted on a tour of the plant or other place of business, the teachers will meet for round-table conferences with the firm's top executives.

Third 'No License' Conviction Brings Fine, Jail Sentence

A third-offense conviction of driving during suspension of his driver's license brought a 60-day jail sentence and $300 fine for Rodney Cheever, 19, 436 No. 27th.

Cheever also pleaded guilty in Municipal Court to a careless driving charge which was filed after a 60- to 70-mile an hour chase through city streets May 17.

Patrolman Edward Kringle told the court he was chasing another speeder when Cheever pulled between the two cars at 53rd and E and would not allow the officer to pass.

Both cars were stopped by the officer when they turned into a gas station.

Judge John Jacobson fined Cheever $50 and costs on the careless driving count.

The youth also has appealed two recent convictions to District Court on driving during suspension of his license. The other offenses occurred in May, after his driving privileges had been taken away when he failed to furnish financial responsibility after an auto accident last year, according to the records.

His doctor said Bauer suffered a compound dislocation of the right leg and a compound fracture of the left. He was still unconscious late Wednesday.

The accident occurred about 3:35 a.m. Wednesday morning in the Burlington Railroad yards west of town.

June, 1952, Second Hottest On Record

Last Month Warmest Since '33

June, 1952, in Nebraska ranked as the hottest June since 1933 and the second warmest on record, according to a climatic survey made by the Nebraska Section of the U.S. Department of Commerce Weather Bureau.

Temperatures averaged about five degrees above normal along the northern border of the state to over eight degrees above over the southeast and locally along the Kansas border in the central portion.

Highest readings were above 100 degrees at all but a few of the higher stations in the west, and locally in the extreme southeast, ranging upward to 113 degrees at Curtis on June 15. Most stations recorded their highest temperature on June 24. Needless to say, there was no unusually cool weather in the state during the month.

June was unseasonably dry over the southwestern and south-central portions of Nebraska and northeastward to the eastern portion of the South Dakota border where many stations received less than an inch of precipitation.

Rainfall was considerably above normal over much of the Blue River drainage area and eastward to the Missouri River. The greatest precipitation was 8.11 inches at York; the least was a trace at Enders Dam and the station 10 miles south-southwest of Trenton.

The month's weather was generally favorable to agriculture, except for some shrinkage to ripening grain caused by the high temperatures.

Prevented Rust

Wheat ripened too rapidly for maximum development, many berries were small, but the test weight was generally good. The dry weather during the first half of the month however prevented the development of wheat diseases such as rust. By the close of June, harvesting was well under way over much of the central and eastern portions of the state, and the crop was ripening over the Panhandle.

The bulk of the corn crop was knee to hip high at the close of the month, fully 10 days ahead of normal.

Dry weather hindered the growth of grass and the wild hay crop and the second crop of alfalfa were rather light. The first crop of alfalfa was helped along by the dry weather and farmers secured a yield of excellent quality hay.

AVERAGE PRECIPITATION, WITH DEPARTURES FROM NORMAL

Division	Average Precip.	Departure from Normal
Eastern Division	4.01	-0.49
Central Division	1.24	-2.53
Western Division	1.87	-1.09

Ord High School '27 Class Holds 25th Anniversary

ORD, Neb. (Lincoln Star Special)—Twenty-three members of the 1927 graduating class of the Ord High School held their 25th anniversary reunion with a smorgasbord supper at the High School Auditorium.

Miss Helen Kubischek of Fairbury and Harry Neumeyer of Grand Island, faculty members at the time the class was graduated, also attended the reunion.

Vernon Anderson, president of the '27 class was in charge of the event. The group made plans to hold another get-together in 1957 to commemorate their 30th anniversary.

Make This Delicious Salad

By Mary Manning

Here's Cottage Cheese that always makes wonderful salads. It's fresh and zesty. Makes every salad extra delicious—extra refreshing.

Mary Manning

That's because Fairmont Cottage Cheese is never too dry, never too moist—but just right. Goes well with any combination of fruits or vegetables. You'll find it's mighty delicious to serve right out of the package, too!

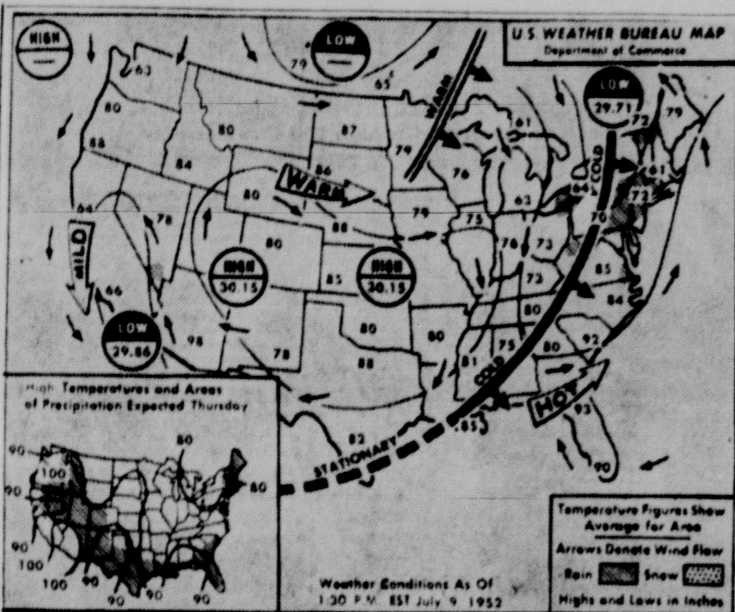

Try it soon, and be sure to make this STUFFED TOMATO SALAD. It's a tasty salad that looks good on the table, too.

SCALD 6 tomatoes in boiling water to remove skin. Hollow out center of tomato with spoon.

MIX TOGETHER, one pint Fairmont Cottage Cheese, 1/4 cup diced cucumber, 1/4 cup diced onion, 1 teaspoon caraway seed. Salt to taste.

Stuff tomatoes with this mixture. Place on lettuce. Top with salad dressing, garnish with parsley.

Serve Fairmont Cottage Cheese once and you'll serve it often. You'll say it's the best cottage cheese in town.

IT WILL BE WARMER—Showers and thundershowers are forecast for New England Thursday. Thundershowers also are expected along coast areas of south Atlantic and Gulf states. Scattered showers and thundershowers also are expected in southern plains, Rockies and great basin. Cooler weather will be noted in New England and middle Atlantic states while it will become warmer in north central third of the U.S. Continued hot weather is forecast for northern Rockies and Pacific northwest. Editors Road Group To Decide Soon On Urging Extra Session

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (P)—North Platte Telegraph-Bulletin said in a statement, "I should be able to announce the time and place of the next committee meeting in a few days."

The committee held its first meeting June 29 at Grand Island. Sandahl termed it an exploratory and "very harmonious" session.

After hearing Gov. Peterson say that there could be little new primary road construction in 1953 unless additional state funds were made available this year, the Kearney conference instructed the committee to try to find a common ground among opponents and proponents of highway financing.

"We want to be on solid ground before we make any recommendations," Sandahl, editor of the

Falls City Man Dies In Crash Of Naval Plane

FALLS CITY, Neb.—Lt. Commander Richard Hofer, 33, son of Mrs. Martha Hofer, director of the Richardson County Assistance Office, was killed Monday night in a naval plane crash near Albuquerque, his mother was notified Wednesday afternoon.

Commander Hofer, graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1941, was based at Sanford Naval Air Base in Florida. Before that he had attended the Falls City schools and Kemper Academy at Booneville, Mo.

He received his Naval pilot wings at Pensacola, Fla., in 1945 after serving on the destroyer, USS Edison, in the invasion of North Africa, Sicily and Italy.

Surviving are his wife, Jane, and his mother.

Basin Advance Seen As Result Of More Funds

OMAHA (P)—Congressional appropriations for Missouri Basin projects will make "substantial construction progress" possible, the Army engineers said.

Brig. Gen. Don G. Shingler, Missouri River division engineer, who soon will leave the post for an assignment at Fort Belvoir, Va., hailed the Congressional action in providing money for "important and needed phases of the Missouri Basin program" as gratifying.

He said the 31 million dollars voted for the Garrison Dam in North Dakota and the 32 and a half million dollars voted for Fort Randall dam in South Dakota would insure maintenance of planned construction scheduled at both projects. Present plans call for Fort Randall's first power to come on the line in the late 1953 and for Garrison power production to begin in 1955.

Gen. Shingler said the $7,750,000 voted for Gavins Point Dam near Yankton, S.D., will permit "substantial progress" on that project and continued progress will be possible on a smaller scale at Oahe near Pierre, S.D., for which three million dollars was voted.

Rites At Beatrice For Rev. Senkeisen

BEATRICE, Neb.—Funeral services for Rev. Tobias Senkeisen, 79-year-old retired Lutheran pastor, were held here Wednesday.

Born in Furth, Byron, Germany, he came to the U.S. as a young man and was ordained in 1893 as a Lutheran pastor. His first service was at Coleridge. Later he served pastorates at Albert and Otis, Kan., and at Brauerville, Mo.

Surviving are his wife, Almuth of Beatrice; a daughter, Mrs. Lester Olson of Berkeley, Calif.; and one granddaughter.

Cooper Family Is Tradition At Conventions

HUMBOLDT, Neb. (P)—The Cooper family of Humboldt is becoming a fixture at Republican national conventions.

This year at Chicago Guy L. Cooper Sr. is a delegate and his granddaughter, Miss Prudence Ann Cooper, 18, student at Chicago University, is a page.

In 1948 his grandson, Guy L. Cooper III, was a senior page at the Philadelphia convention.

In 1944 his son, Guy L. Cooper, Jr., was a delegate to the Chicago convention.

In 1920 his father, O. A. Cooper, was a delegate to the Chicago convention.

City Council Must Act On Regler Case

BEATRICE, Neb. (P)—The Beatrice city council is under orders to reinstate Police Chief L. C. Regler within 48 hours, or within that time file formal charges and begin dismissal proceedings as set out in the statutes.

The order, a writ of mandamus, came from District Judge C. B. Ellis after hearing of a suit brought by Regler, asking reinstatement.

The judge didn't deny the city council's right to dismiss the chief, but accused the council of not having followed procedures set out by law for such cases.

In a strong statement, the judge said that an "alleged hearing" held May 27 at which a police officer detailed "charges" against Chief Regler, was conducted in "such a reckless manner" it did not comply with "even the minimum requirements of a 'day in court'."

An officer is entitled to an "unhampered hearing in a dignified and orderly manner," Judge Ellis said.

That means, he explained, that the accused is entitled to notice, filing of charges, a chance to examine the charges at leisure, a chance to consult an attorney and due notice that he is on trial.

Hog Disease Showing Signs Of Slackening

Only Oregon Is Barring Shipments

OMAHA (INS)—Nebraska's outbreak of vesicular exanthema among hogs is showing signs of slackening, according to officials of the bureau of animal industry. Industry veterinarians at Omaha said no new outbreaks have been reported in the Omaha area and added that only one state—Oregon—is now barring shipments of Nebraska hogs. Last week, when the infection was first discovered, five states placed a ban on Nebraska swine.

Several feedlots near the Omaha market were still under quarantine Wednesday but the market itself was operating normally after a temporary week-end shut-down during which hog pens and sale barns were thoroughly disinfected.

However, a state agriculture department ban on the shipment of stock hogs in Nebraska was still in effect. Only shipments exempted are those to Omaha and Scottsbluff for immediate slaughter. All animals undergo rigid federal inspection at the two markets.

NU Scholarship Total Increased By Ak-Sar-Ben

OMAHA (AP)—Ak-Sar-Ben, Omaha civic organization, announced it will substantially increase its scholarships and fellowships in the agricultural field this fall.

Those at the University of Nebraska will be raised in number to 50, those at Iowa State College to 24.

W. B. Millard Jr., chairman of the Ak-Sar-Ben scholarship committee, said the new grants will bring the organizations total scholarships to 102.

Ak-Sar-Ben's annual contributions for scholarships is in excess of $16,000.

The 12 new scholarships at the Nebraska College of Agriculture and the six additional at Iowa State are for freshmen students.

In addition to the university scholarships, Millard said, Ak-Sar-Ben this fall for the first time will offer 10 high school scholarships to the School of Agriculture at Curtis. They will go to freshmen students and sparsely settled areas of Western Nebraska.

Bloomfield Youths' Lives Run Parallel Despite Army Call

BLOOMFIELD, Neb.—Even the Army can't break up the Damon and Pythias team of two Bloomfield youths, Charles G. Luellman and Julian C. Canaday, whose lives have run a parallel course.

Both enlisted in the Army at the same time and the two are now stationed at the Camp Crowder, Mo., reception center.

Charles and Julian were born and reared here, graduating from high school in 1943. The following term both entered college, then enrolled together as juniors at the University of Nebraska. The Bloomfield pair received bachelor's degrees this June.

Members of Theta Chi fraternity, they served as executive officers during the second semester of their senior terms.

The Luellman-Canaday parallel goes even farther. Both are the youngest sons of two-son families. Their elder brothers both saw service in the European theater during World War II. The maternal grandparents of both young men were Knox County pioneers, so the friendship of the families reaches back into Nebraska history.

Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luellman and Julian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Canaday.

"I Like Taft", "Ike Likes Me", "I'm For MacArthur" On TV

The only reason that we found Mrs. Chauncey Barney (left) and Mrs. Jack Devoe boarding a train instead of joining a television cheering section is the fact that the two young matrons were taking off for Chicago where their husbands are serving as alternate delegates.

But why go to Chicago, asks

Mrs. Donald W. Miller's guest eightsome, when you can have front row seats and REALLY relax at home—or at least in someone else's home—We're not too sure about the relaxing, although C. W. Roberts (left) seems to be taking it easy—but down front we find Mrs. Ruth Raymond Gavin (left), Mrs. Miller and R. E. Campbell watching the convention activities with considerable interest and doubtless mixed emotions—We wouldn't be at all surprised but what Mr. Campbell was awaiting the Nebraska delegation's decision concerning a split in the votes—and his expression conveys the idea that the decision had better be the right one. Keeping their eyes on the screen in the back row, beginning with

Mr. Roberts, we find Mrs. R. E. Campbell, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Mrs. Frank Boehmer, Mrs. Frank Williams, and Mr. Williams who, we'll wager, already has made up his mind about certain political matters, and isn't going to get too excited regardless of the outcome.

We might have thought this was a stoic masculine foursome—politically speaking—that is, if it weren't for that expression on Walton B. Roberts' face—Our guess is that Mr. Roberts feels reasonably certain that his man MacArthur (General Douglas) will get the nod for at least the second place spot and who can tell, things might pick up most any moment—But Mr. Roberts is seated between two philosophers—Robert C. Russell (extreme right)—whose television guests the members of the group are—and Charles Simon, who is hiding behind his glasses anyway, and no one can know for sure just what he is thinking. The man on the extreme left has sort of a skeptical, "show me" expression due to the fact, probably, that he is in the newspaper business—Of course he is Walter W. White, publisher of The Lincoln Star.

It was bridge club night at the home of Mrs. James Critchfield, but you can see that bridge has been forgotten completely for six pairs of feminine eyes are glued on the TV screen and convention proceedings—We find Mrs. Critchfield and Mrs. Howard Chapin seated on the floor, not missing a thing in convention hall—and equally interested are these in the back row including, from left to right, Mrs. Oliver Magee, Mrs. Robert Higgins, Mrs. Merlin James, Mrs. Thomas Higgins.

We're Lucky

THIS WOULD HAVE been a rugged week if convention news on the radio, TV, and the printed page had been a twenty-four hour proposition—Fortunately for us there are interludes that involve guests, courtesies, and enough of this and that to keep us going day after day—Otherwise we might just as well have hung a "Gone Fishing" sign on our door and called it quits.

BUT STRANGE as it may seem there is news galore—so much, in fact, that we're skeptical of getting it all told this ayem—Meant to tell you yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. Ted O'Shea were the incentives for the eightsome no host dinner on Tuesday evening at the Lcc—In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pegler, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meginnis.

HEAR THAT Mrs. Arthur Mason, Jr., and her two daughters, Pamela and Judy, are in town—the guests of Mr. Mason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mason, Mr. Mason accompanied his family from Denver to Lincoln, but after a brief visit went on to Philadelphia where he and his family will reside.

And complimenting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mason will be hostess at a 10 o'clock coffee this morning at her home. Included among the guests will be Alpha Phi sisters of Mrs. Mason, Jr.

FOUND ANOTHER party on the morning's calendar for Mrs. Meyers Cather of Salina, Kans.—Mrs. Cather's hostess is Mrs. Harry Seward who has invited a small group of guests in for coffee.

SPEAKING OF various courtesies brings to mind Miss Esther Beynon whose marriage to Don Williams will take place later this month—Miss Beynon has a full calendar for next Tuesday—a luncheon, for which Mrs. Blaine Yoder and her daughters, Mrs. Don Frank of North Platte, and Mrs. William Palmer will be hostesses at the home of Mrs. Yoder. The guest list will include the feminine members of the bride-elect's family.

ON THURSDAY evening Miss Beynon's aunt, Mrs. L. Emerson Smith, will be hostess to fourteen feminine guests at a sandwich tray party at her home.

TODAY IS THE day that Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Roggensack arrive to spend today and tomorrow as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Rucklos—Mr. and Mrs. Roggensack, who reside in an Iowa town with the delightful name of Strawberry Point, are en route to Denver for a holiday.

BUT, MR. AND Mrs. Rucklos are to have another guest, too

We don't know for sure, of course, but we feel that sentiment towards the various presidential candidates is rather evenly divided in this group at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woods.

Or, it could be a sixty-forty split—However, all soap-boxes have been put away for the —Mrs. Rucklos's sister, Miss Dorothy Easley of Chicago, who arrives on Saturday to spend a week in Lincoln. At the end of her week's visit Miss Easley, Mr. and Mrs. Rucklos and their daughter, Fredricka, will leave for the Black Hills where they will vacation.

APROPOS of vacations—Mr. and evening in spite of the fact there was no balloting at the convention, so there can be no clues from any comments—other than a bit of humorous ad libbing. The credentials committee may not have finished all of their unfinished convention business, but the organizer seemed to be doing all right Wednesday evening—Nary a strain of "Donkey Serenade" did one hear.

kinson where he was joined by Mrs. Gotchall, the former Jayne Carter. Lieut. and Mrs. Gotchall are in Lincoln at the moment, the guests of Mrs. Gotchall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carter, but will leave later today for Colorado Springs where Lieut. Gotchall will receive his discharge from the service at Camp Carson.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Willis Lafler was hostess to nine guests at her home Wednesday afternoon in celebration of the sixtieth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. John Thompson.

We Hear That--

Spending a month in Lincoln as the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Givan are Mrs. Givan's son, Robert Whitmore, Mrs. Whitmore and their children, Sharon and Bobby, who arrived last Saturday from their home at Miami, Fla.

Bride At Sunday Ceremony

Lighted candles and pedestal arrangements of majestic daisies and gladioli formed the all-white decor for the marriage of Miss Ramona Van Wyngarden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Van Wyngarden, to Lieut. James Downey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Downey, all

MRS. JAMES DOWNEY of Scottsbluff, which took place at the First Methodist Church in Scottsbluff, Sunday, July 6. Clusters of the daisies decorated the tall, cathedral candles which marked the pews of the processional aisle.

The lines of the 4 o'clock ceremony were read by the Rev. Ralph Rasmussen, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Berenice Kemp, organist. Mrs. Kemp also accompanied Morris Hayes who sang, "Through The Years", and "The Lord's Prayer". Froked in navy blue imported skirts, and they wore clusters of white daisies tied with navy ribbon in their hair. Their crescent bouquets were fashioned of white Marguerite daisies. Lighting the candles were Miss Judy Van Wyngarden, sister of the bride, and Miss Patricia Pearre, frocked in white organly sashed with navy blue streamers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a period gown of white nylon net and Chantilly lace. A widely winged collar and long sleeves, closely buttoned at the wrists, accented the molded bodice, and beneath a full peplum of lace, the tiered net and lace skirt tapered into a train. Twists of illusion and seed pearls edged her lace cap which held to the head her veil of imported illusion, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Serving as best man was Charles Curtis of Geneva, and seating the guests were Norman Van Wyngarden, brother of the bride, and Bob Barhus, both of Scottsbluff, and Jim Thomas of Lincoln. Stephen Van Wyngarden, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

A reception for three hundred guests was held in the Fellowship hall of the church.

For their wedding trip to Dayton, Ohio, where they will reside, Mrs. Downey wore a tailored frock and jacket in black and white shantung with white accessories.

The bride is a former student at the University of Nebraska, a member of Delta Gamma, and was chosen Sweetheart of Sigma Chi in 1951. A graduate of the University of Nebraska, where he served as president of Sigma Chi, Lieut. Downey will be stationed with the air force at Wright-Patterson field, Dayton, Ohio.

DAR Officers

The Scottsbluff Katahdin chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held its final meeting of the year recently following a 9 o'clock morning coffee at the home of Mrs. J. S. Ankeny, outgoing chapter regent.

Mrs. Ankeny, who has served as regent for the past three years, was assisted by Mrs. C. J. Sanderson and Mrs. O. L. Jones.

A wedding luncheon was held at the Cafe del Rey Moro, after which Mr. and Mrs. Koerwitz left for a trip to Long Beach, Cal. They will reside at Oxnard, Cal., where the bridegroom, recently returned after two years overseas duty with the navy, is stationed at Port Hueneme, Cal.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and a member of Sigma Kappa.

Mrs. Arthur Mason Jr., and her two daughters—Pamela (left) and Judy, are spending several days as the house guests of Mr. Mason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mason, en route from their former home in Denver, to their new home in Philadelphia.

Wedding Is Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Marian Alyce Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stewart, to Fredrick L. Koerwitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koerwitz of Deshler, took place Saturday morning, June 14, at San Diego, Cal. Lighted white candles and pedestal arrangements of pink gladioli decorated the North Island chapel of the San Diego naval air station for the 10 o'clock ceremony, the lines of which were read by Chaplain Samuel B. Bennett.

As the members of the family and a small group of friends

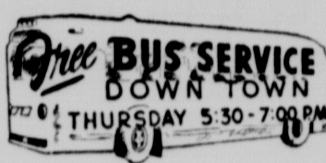

MRS. FREDRICK L. KOERWITZ assembled, Arthur D. Sale presented a prelude of organ music, and also played the wedding music.

The maid of honor was Miss Earlene Koerwitz of Deshler, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a suit of aqua shantung and a shoulder corsage of pink roses. Harold Grueber of Deshler, served Mr. Koerwitz as best man.

On A Cowpoke Named Santee

Turn attention here today to Wes Santee, Kansas' amazing distance runner who, as a sophomore, has made the Olympic squad.

Wes turned to distance running on his father's 4,000-acre cattle ranch near Ashland, Kans., close to the Oklahoma border. Best way to locate the vicinity, in our recollection, is to say it is "hard south" of Dodge City.

"I just like to run," Wes told The Firing Line at the Big Seven outdoor sweepstakes at Norman, Okla. We saved these notes until Wes passed the Olympic trials.

He says he's put in a lot of time in the saddle and has had a lot of experience roping calves.

About Santee's only affinity with the cow country is the high-heeled boots he wears. His long pins, however, do not include the bend so characteristic of one who lives on a cow pony.

"I can't remember when I hadn't had the desire to run," Wes told The Firing Line. "When it gets to be a chore, I'll quit."

Glenn Cunningham, the old Kansas world mile record-holder, was Santee's early idol. He set his sights on beating his records.

Bill Easton

While he's met and talked with Glenn on many occasions, he says that the former Olympic team member has not helped his running.

To that score, he gives all credit to Bill Easton, the genial Jayhawk trackmaster.

"I have only one coach and he's the best," Santee says of Easton.

There is no actual gauge yet on how fast Santee will go. He qualified for the Olympics in the 5000-meter run.

He has run a half-mile under 1:52, a quarter in :49.1 and the mile in 4:07.4. That shows both speed and stamina.

His stride is extremely loose and easy and he never dies in the stretch. He hardly seems to breathe hard at the tape.

Experts say he runs a great deal like the European stars in that he takes short steps. Actually, Santee is deceiving in that he is so long of limb that his stride appears short. What is a normal stride lengthens out plenty when the lad hits the stretch.

Santee and Thane Baker, Kansas State's great sprinter, will be the Big Seven's only representatives in the Olympics. Baker qualified in the 200-meter dash by landing a close second to Andy Stanfield of Seton Hall in :20.6, a collegiate record.

UNCLE MORITZ AABEL of Hastings, in New York for a spell, has been sending us clippings on Bobby Shantz of the Philly A's and Lincoln vintage. Bobby is very much the toast of New York these days, as well as the entire baseball world, as witness: Grantland Rice: "Shantz' fifth season with the staggering A's has been one of the most phenomenal turns in the game. At 26, he is probably the most valuable piece of baseball property there is."

Leonard Koppett of the New York Herald Tribune: "To rival managers, of whom Casey Stengel is one, Shantz is unbearable. When Bobby whips his Yankees, Stengel Casey gets so disturbed he won't take the bus to the railroad station with the players. He walks, muttering to himself, his left hand twitching at his side in a ritualized version of Bobby's wrist motion. By now, though, Casey is getting accustomed to being beaten by the little squirt and, in a masochistic sort of way has developed an affection for watching him operate."

WALT MANGOLD, the Bennington postmaster and one of our favorite sportsmen, is back from a fishing trip to the far north—Minnesota and Canada. He reports that most of the catch weighed in the neighborhood of five or six pounds, although a 25-pound muskie was following the lure.

Shantz Needs Few Days Rest

PHILADELPHIA (P)—X-rays confirmed Wednesday that little Bobby Shantz, southpaw pitching ace of the Philadelphia Athletics, is suffering from a muscular condition in his chest.

The 14-game winner, who Tuesday fanned three of the National League's finest hitters in his one inning All-Star game stint, will receive diathermy treatments for the next few days and is not expected to work in the three-game Cleveland series which opens here Thursday night.

Dr. Illarion Gopadeze, team physician, said the disturbance was nothing serious and that all the five foot, seven inch, 145 pounder needs is a few extra days of rest.

A splash of salt water will herald the opening of the Nebraska AAU Senior Men's and Women's Swimming Meet at the Capitol Beach pool Saturday, July 12.

Preliminaries start at 10 a.m. Finals are scheduled for 7:30 Saturday evening.

Six teams will vie for the two crowns, with Hastings the favorite in the men's division and Omaha Peony Park rated tops in the women's event due to their victories in the recent Midwest AAU Meet.

Other teams entered are Capitol Beach, Lincoln Country Club, Omaha Field Club and Columbus. All of the Midwest AAU champions of this year will compete. One of the featured attractions will be a duel between Divers Ed Craren and Merrill Hodges.

Craren is the former Big Seven diving champ and an Olympic candidate. Hodges, from Washington, is a National Junior AAU titlist. The two have been carrying on a rivalry for about three years.

The meet is sponsored by the Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of Capitol Beach. Dr. Ken Jones of the Jaycee's is the meet director.

Ed Hrabcsak Is Victim Of Des Moines, 6-1, Attack

By NORRIS ANDERSON (Sports Editor, The Star)

A change-up magician named Tom LeGros Wednesday night applied his wizardry to the weak-sticking Lincoln A's and pitched his Des Moines cohorts to an easy 6-1 victory.

That breeze emerging from Sherman Field was stirred by the whirl of A's bats as Mr. LeGros allowed only five hits and let only three of Les Bell's men as far as third base.

In this setting, 1,750 paying patrons, the largest home attendance since a Sunday doubleheader against Sioux City in April, saw Big Ed Hrabcsak lose his second game of the season.

Not quite his usual model of high control, Big Ed gave way to a pinchhitter after the Bruins had scored five runs on seven hits in the first seven frames. His successor, Harry Deseri, gave up three more hits and an additional run.

Fielding at times like they were wearing invisible boxing gloves, the A's shortchanged themselves with six errors.

Four of those bobbles, plus three singles and a double, gave Des Moines four runs in the second inning. The A's never quite recovered from this unintentional donation.

Lincoln scored in the third. Reedy making it in on a fielder's choice, an error, and Bob Gardner's single.

Two singles, a walk and a sacrifice produced a Bruin run in the seventh. The Bears scored a finale in the ninth on two singles, a wild pitch and an error.

Al Romberger (6-11) and Mason Bowes (2-10) will be on the mound for the A's tonight in a double bill, starting at 6:30. They will be opposed by Dave Hillman (2-4) and Paul Schnelders (7-7) of Des Moines. Following a single game with the Bruins Friday night, the A's will leave on a 15-day road trip.

Margin notes. . . "Fran Nagle Night" was observed in honor of the A's business manager who is leaving to play pro football for the Montreal Alouettes. . . A crowd of dignitaries, including Husker Coach Bill Glassford and A. Q. Schimmel, prey of the Lincoln Civic Baseball Association, paid their tributes to Fran. . . He leaves today for Montreal to start work-outs at McGill University. . . The A's presented Fran with a fancy pen and pencil set. . . Fran's successor, Tom Clark, a genial Virginian, is an old friend of Umpire Joe Cibulka. . . As a 14-year-old kid, Tom used to travel around the old Bi-State League with Joe, then umpiring out of Martinsville, Va. . . .

Ed Hrabcsak is the victim of a fielding blunder by Des Moines' Les Bell, who hit a home run off Hrabcsak in the eighth inning. Hrabcsak's record stands at 1-2.

Specter Of Divided Party Hovers Over Convention

Chances Of Peace Less Each Hour

By DON WHITEHEAD
CHICAGO (P)—Out of the Taft-Eisenhower presidential battle stalked the specter Wednesday of a Republican party torn by its own internal fury—and possibly an easy prey for the Democrats in November.

This was the leering ghost that haunted this 25th national Republican convention.

The voices of compromise were puny sounds in the noisy and bitter brawling over delegate votes.

With each passing hour, the chances for unity received a black-jack blow behind the ears.

This was a no-compromise fight to the finish between Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower—the front-running GOP presidential nomination candidates.

Can either side forget the knife-edged words, the harsh accusation and the gall of defeat to throw eager support to the winner? This was a question with which the peace makers must struggle in the months before the election.

For two days, the activities on the convention floor have been merely window dressing for the delegates and spectators.

The real struggle has been going on downtown in the convention credentials committee over contested delegates and in hotel room meetings of the strategists who pull the strings.

In reality, it began last fall when Sen. Taft opened his early drive to line up delegate strength. It picked up intensity in state fights over selection of delegates.

And it boiled over when Taft forces took the lion's share of disputed delegate seats by vote of the Republican national committee—controlled by Taft supporters—which banned television and radio reporting of its sessions.

MISSING TOT FOUND—Little Johnny Wade, 3, plants a firm kiss on his uncle, Jim Wyman, at Levelland, Tex., after the youngster, missing from his Aztec, N.M., home since May 4, was found with a couple at Levelland, County Attorney Bill Boedecker said that Mrs. Tommie Neil Elrod, 22, admitted, in a signed statement, that she and her husband took the boy because she was attracted to him. An unidentified woman heard Mrs. Elrod discussing baby food in a grocery store. That was the tip that finally led officers to the baby. (AP Wirephoto.)

Out of these pre-convention maneuvers, the Eisenhower people built up an issue: They charge Taft was trying to steamroller the convention with ruthless, bulldozing methods.

One thing was crystal clear: The Republican Party has a tremendous job ahead in patching up wounds and healing the sores opened by their fight among themselves.

Hopes Rising From Year-Old Peace Talks

MUNSAN (Thursday) (INS)—Korean armistice talks go into their second year today behind a Communist-lowered veil of secrecy around negotiations on the deadlocked issue of war prisoner repatriation.

Truce negotiators meet in Panmunjom for the seventh straight day of secret meetings, scheduled at Communist request to deal with the repatriation issue, sole remaining block to final agreement.

A year ago today Vice Adm. C.

Turner Joy and his four Allied associate delegates met with North Korean Gen. Nam Il and his co-delegate for the first time in a converted restaurant in Kaesong.

Today an entirely different Allied team is still conferring with Nam in a different conference site.

Strict observance of the secrecy rule kept the amount of progress in the current sessions hidden from the public, but there were vague indications from Communist propaganda sources that the sought-for solution might possibly be approaching.

The Peiping Radio reached a new high mark in its new conciliatory attitude early today when it "welcomed" what it called the U. N. "attitude of willingness to negotiate."

Albino Blackbird Found

CHEOKEE, Ia. (P)—One of nature's rarities—an albino blackbird—has been captured here.

The white bird with pink eyes was found on the Cherokee golf course by two boys. Weldon Frankforter, director of the Sanford Museum here, said albinos rarely survive because their coloring makes them easy prey for their natural enemies.

Solid California Votes For Warren First Two Ballots

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO (P)—Sen. William Knowland said Wednesday California's 70-vote delegation will vote for Gov. Earl Warren through at least two GOP presidential nominating ballots.

Knowland's announcement, made to a reporter just before a caucus of the California group on the Texas delegate contest, dashed hopes of supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for some of Warren's support on the second presidential ballot.

Knowland said that in making his calculations he had taken into account the possibility that a large share of Pennsylvania's 70 delegates and Michigan's 46 might go to Eisenhower.

British Reds Demonstrate Against Gen. Ridgway

LONDON (AP)—British police reinforcements Wednesday night dispersed a score of Communist demonstrators who paraded before the American Embassy bawling: "Go home Ridgway—you germ murderer."

Five men were arrested and charged with disturbing public order.

Seven persons were rounded up earlier at London Airport when a demonstration flared there upon the arrival of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway on his first official visit to London as supreme commander of Allied powers in Europe.

Some of the demonstrators rounded up at the airport put up a brief struggle.

Ridgway gave no indication he paid any attention to the outburst as he walked from his plane to review a British Royal Air Force guard of honor. Similar Red-led demonstrations have been staged against him in other western European capitals.

Gen. and Mrs. Ridgway will be received by Queen Elizabeth II at Buckingham Palace Thursday.

Bennett To Again Direct Pinewood Opera

Profile of a man who is happiest when there is music in the air: Professor Bennett.

Proof of the pudding: Prof. Bennett, who heads the department of music at Nebraska Wesleyan University, directs the church choir at First Presbyterian Church and serves actively in Lincoln musical circles, will mount the podium in Lincoln's Pinewood Bowl Friday night and wield the baton again to direct this summer's annual community opera.

"Naughty Marietta, the Lincoln Singfest committee's annual opera, opens Friday for four-night run. It will represent another accomplishment for Prof. Bennett, who has been instrumental in bringing Lincoln an annual experience with both light and grand opera for the past 19 years.

In 1933 he began the first of his annual productions on the Wesleyan stage, using nothing but student talent. That year the show was the Gilbert and Sullivan favorite, "The Mikado."

Annual Show

Three years ago he brought the series to a new peak with an outstanding production of "Faust." That year he undertook the Singfest committee assignment to develop an annual show for Pinewood Bowl. He attacked that problem with customary enthusiasm and now Lincolmites look forward each summer to the four-day, out-of-door production.

Those who know Bennett say an audience actually misses half of the show when he is on the podium, simply because they are forced to sit behind the director.

Director Bennett is noted for the response he is able to get from a choral group or from the actors on the stage before him. Much of this is accomplished through a series of gesticulations—both with the face and hands—which belong to him alone.

Bennett was graduated from the University of Nebraska with a B.A. in music in 1923. His graduate work was done at Columbia. He has also studied at Northwestern and took advanced operatic study in New York and Chicago.

Prime Favorite

In 1924, he joined the staff at Nebraska Wesleyan as assistant director of the department of music. He has served as director of the church choir at First Presbyterian Church continuously has been "Pop" Bennett for many years. To today's crop and to the alumni of many years, there is but one "Pop" Bennett.

One has only to know Oscar Bennett to realize why he is a prime favorite with Wesleyan students and others alike.

The success of "Naughty Marietta" will be another in a long line of tributes to Oscar Bennett—a gentleman with a great capacity for organization and a great love of producing music to a task, for bringing out the best musically in any individual who stands before his baton.

To Wesleyan students, he is and that others may enjoy.

Many Old-Folk Sayings About Weather Backed By Science

By JOE VOSABA (Star Staff Writer)

The old folk-sayings you hear about the weather may not be as silly as they sound.

Many of them have a basis in science, Lincoln Weatherman W. R. Stevens told The Star.

For instance:

"A ring around the moon, or the sun, means rain." Scientifically, a ring indicates cirro-stratus (high) clouds in advance of a low-pressure area, which brings rain.

"When sound travels far and wide, a stormy day will betide." Absorption of sound in air is less when the air is more humid. When winds blow from the warmer areas over cooler surfaces—causing rain—the sound waves (and television waves) are bent toward the surface of the earth. The humid air acts, in effect, like a ceiling from which the sound bounces down.

Stevens illustrated one belief with a poem by A. P. Herbert, English writer:

"But I know ladies by the score Whose hair, like seaweed, scents the storm: Long before it starts to storm Their locks assume a wind-blown form."

Human hair does become unruly before a storm, the weatherman explained, because hair absorbs moisture in proportion to the humidity and the air becomes more humid in advance of a storm.

Weather scientists have taken advantage of that and use human hair in some of the delicate instruments, such as the hygrometer, to expand and contract to record changes in moisture.

Incidentally, Stevens added, they find that blonde hair is the best.

"When the wind's in the south, there's rain in his mouth." Since practically all the precipitation in this part of the country comes up from the Gulf of Mexico, a south wind indicates a northward movement of warmer, more humid air which bears rain.

Lancaster Polio Chapter Gets $3,100 From National Office

The Lancaster County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has received a check for $3,100 from the national office to aid the local chapter in meeting current bills.

And two more tank-type respirators have been shipped to Omaha to supplement 11 already in use there, Clinton Belknap, eastern Nebraska representative of the National Foundation, said.

Morris Siegel, county chairman, pointed out that $30,779.54 was given to the March of Dimes in the county this year, half of which stays here to aid local polio patients.

"Our local funds were all obligated weeks ago," he added, "and it has been necessary to call upon National Headquarters for additional aid."

"Up to June 28 it looked as if we might get through this year without too many new cases," Siegel declared, "but since that date at least eight new polio patients have been reported in Lancaster County."

Belknap said he had requested two units from the Denver equipment pool of the Foundation. One year, the child, Virginia Maloney, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Maloney of Omaha, was in an iron lung with bulbar polio.

Belknap pointed out that the Omaha supply of iron lungs was being taxed more than usual at this time of year because six of the lungs are still in use by carry-over cases from last year.

The 11 lungs now in use in Omaha came from these sources: Columbus, David City, Fremont, Falls City, Norfolk and the National Foundation at Iowa City, Ia., each one; National Foundation at Denver, two; and Omaha, three.

With the new shipment there will be 13 iron lungs in Omaha.

Children's Memorial Hospital in Omaha reported its 19th—and first critical—polio case of the

That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEREETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly; so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). KOJÉ PRISONER - OF - WAR ISLAND, Off Korea (INS)—Kojé Island officials reported Wednesday that 20,000 Communist prisoners of war have been transferred from this once strife-torn POW island since July 2. The giant transfer movement of POWs to new island encampments scales down the prisoners population on Kojé to some 60,000. Officials said that the figure would be reduced to 50,000 by the middle of the month.

Democratic Camp—Kerr Labels Convention 'Disgusting'

Humphrey Says GOP 'Machinery' Revealed

(By The Associated Press)

Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma said Wednesday the Taft-Eisenhower battle at the Republican National Convention in Chicago is "disgusting to the American people."

He called it a brawl.

Kerr, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, issued a statement in Washington, D. C., sounding a plea for nationwide unity instead of dissension in this election year.

As for the GOP convention, Kerr said:

"The warring factions demonstrated that they are unable to develop anything but another split, and that they are totally unable to unify their own party or inspire the confidence and support of the American people."

Blast From Humphrey

Another blast at the Republicans came from Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minnesota's favorite son candidate for the Democratic presidential prize.

Emerging from a White House talk with President Truman, Humphrey told newsmen:

"The Republicans are not doing themselves any good. They are giving the people an eye full of the kind of machinery manipulation that goes on in the GOP."

Alluding to charges and counter charges of "retail" exchanged by the rival GOP camps of Sen. Taft and Gen. Eisenhower, Humphrey said:

"A political party whose members steal from each other cannot be trusted to run the government of the United States."

Bill Is Signed To Name Lake After Strunk

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to change the name of Medicine Creek reservoir in Frontier County, Neb., to Harry Strunk Lake, was signed by President Truman.

Strunk, publisher of the McCook, Neb., Gazette, was Nebraska director of the National Reclamation Association from 1948 and is founder and president of the Republican Valley Conservation Association.

This is the second honor that has come in the last year to the McCook publisher, who formed the Republican Valley Conservation Association to plug for this and other conservation projects long before the dam was blue-printed.

Last September he was presented the interior department's conservation award for "a lifetime of work in behalf of the conservation and utilization of the natural resources of the Republic."

He was the first man in the western states to receive this award, and the honor was presented to him by G. L. L. Neweaver, assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Reclamation.

That citation said that "had it not been for your (Strunk's) perseverance in the face of almost insurmountable difficulties, it is doubtful whether the present state of development of the Republican River valley would have been achieved."

The seven million dollar Medicine Creek dam project is another bulwark against the rampaging floods in the Republican River valley which claimed 110 lives in 1935 and another 13 in 1947.

LaPlatte Plant Problems Discussed

Allied Chemical Co. officials met here Wednesday with state and federal officials to discuss problems connected with construction of the proposed $25,000,000 nitrogen and urea plant near LaPlatte.

One question was whether the plant would create a water pollution problem from the standpoint of both public health and wildlife.

Paul Gilbert, secretary of the State Game Commission, said it appeared there would be no problem.

But Nebraska officials will check with officials of the state of Virginia to learn that state's experience with similar plants operated by the same company on the James river.

Gilbert said the company also wishes to buy the 1,100-acre Plattsmouth rifle range which the game commission has owned about five years.

The commission has been unable to develop the area as it intended originally because Army Engineers have not built the necessary dikes to protect the area from overflow, Gilbert explained.

Permission of the Legislature will be required for the commission to sell the land. But Gilbert said the commission undoubtedly can find a more suitable area for a rifle range on higher ground.

The chemical company would use the land as a source of water

Jets En Route To Far East Can Carry Small Atom Bomb

WASHINGTON (INS)—Air Force Undersecretary Gilpatrick said Wednesday that the F-84G Thunderjet fighters now en route to Korea are capable of carrying a small atomic bomb.

Gilpatrick, who returned from the Far East last week end, told a news conference that all of the F-84Gs have the atomic capability. However, he gave no indication whether there is a plan to use atomic explosives in Korea.

The 31st fighter escort wing, commanded by Col. David C. Schilling, is now en route to the Far East with the late model Thunderjets. They have not yet been used in combat.

Gilpatrick revealed that as late as last February between a third and a half of U.S. aircraft in the Far East were out of commission because of shortages of jet engines, parts, electronic and other equipment.

Action Monday On Auditorium Plans Possible

Acting Mayor Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme has expressed the hope that the City Council will be in a position to act Monday on new plans for a Municipal Auditorium.

Her hope springs from a series of meetings being held this week between Council members, the Associated Auditorium Architects and Auditorium Advisory Committee. It is possible, she stated, that a plan might be agreed upon this week that can be acted upon officially by the Council Monday.

"We are mainly concerned," said the councilwoman, "with building an auditorium with the funds we have on hand and getting the most for our money."

It is expected the Council will call for entirely new auditorium plans.

Ralston Firm Gets Contract For Patrol Omaha Building

Contract for constructing an area state safety patrol headquarters building at Omaha has been awarded John A. Wiebe Co., Ralston, for $17,700, Harold L. Aitken, state engineer, announced.

Five other bids ranging from $19,681 to $22,293 were received. The low bid includes plumbing, heating and electrical wiring.

The building will be located at 78th and Dodge streets and will be used for examining drivers' license applicants as well as a headquarters for the troop. Funds were appropriated by the last Legislature to move the troop from their present rented quarters.

Mrs. Orme stated that the group felt such plans could be drawn up in much less time than the 10 to 12 months estimated by the Architects.

Crew Of 11 Parachutes Safely As B-29 Crashes

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (INS)—An Air Force B-29 out of Randolph Air Force Base, crashed near Gonzales Wednesday but all 11 men aboard bailed out safely without injury.

First Lt. William T. Foster, the plane's commander, said the men parachuted at about 4,500 feet after the ship's No. 4 engine burst into flames and he leveled off in an unsuccessful attempt to extinguish the fire.

Foster said "Every crew member followed instruction and got out in record time."

The bomber took off from Randolph Base.

The better jobs are offered in the Journal & Star "Help Wanted" columns in the West Ad.
